THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1869.

CAPE FEAR AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

Thursday last we spent in Wilmington in attendance on the first annual Fair of the Cape Fear Agricultural Association, and a grand affair, and joyous occasion it was. Men and brethren met who had not seen each other since the great fight in the Wilderness, or at the charge at Chancellorsville, or the retreat from Gettysburg. Men met who had not seen each other since they parted at Appomattox, with full eyes and heavy hearts. Right hearty was the greeting, and the meeting of these reconstructed farmers and friends, from Gen. Lee's army, formed an army of farmers, their sons and daughters, met to celebrate the triumphs of peace instead of those of war. The Fair was worthy of the Cape Fear in the days of the Ashes, Moores, Waddells, Hoopers; Harnetts, Quinces, McLeans, Campbells, Hills, Lillingtons, Nixons, Walkers, Mears, Wrights, Cowans, Russells and their noble compeers, who made the Cape Fear what it is, and why should it not have been worthy of these illustrious men? We had their grand children and great grand children to make the Fair what it was, a grand success.

A great, great grand son of Gov. Sam. Ashe, was assigned the duty of conducting the corps editorial over the Fair Grounds and showing them all the sights. Every citizen of Wilmington, old and young, seems to have had an assigned duty to perform, and so graciously was it performed that many visitors did not even find out that they had been assigned for the particular duty.

We owe an apology to our Cape Fear friends for not having noticed their fair through a reporter. Our Assistant, Mr. Moore, spoke for the pen of a ready writer who sent two several reports from the Fair ground to the SENTINEL; but they did not appear, being crowded out by the prolonged proceedings of the Legislature.

With all deference to the "hands," if we had been at home their proceedings should have given way for the proceedings of the Cape Fear Agricultural Fair.

Twenty and seven times were we asked if the Cape Fear Fair did not beat the State Fair? Our answer was, that we should not be expected to say so, if it did, ours (the State's) was metropolitan while the Cape Fear was only provincial, and it would not do for an Editor at the Capital to admit that the Province had beaten the metropolis.

In some respects the provincial beat the metropolitan Fair; as a whole the metropolitan excelled the provincial. The provincial excelled in numbers, and the zest and zeal with which the ladies entered into it. Numbers, Horses, Cattle, and pretty Girls are prominent features in all Fairs, and while the province beat us in the first, we are entitled to the premium in the three last. In the last named feature, our excellence was so slight however, that it is hardly worth counting; certainly not to be boasted of.

In hogs and carpet-baggers we beat the provincials.

The big chester of Mr. Henry Tate, of Greensboro, weighed 800 pounds, while the big hog of the provincal Fair weighed only 700 pounds. We did not see a carpet-bagger in the stand at the Cape Fear Fair, while the stand at the Metroplitan was crowded with them, seeking social recognition among a people whom they denounce as traitors deserving death.

We hope the Metropolitan stand next year will be as clear of carpet-baggers as was the Provincial Fair this year. The native gentlemen, whose kindred were slain by the carpet-bag invaders, must be less assiduous in their court to the invaders, or they will find themselves excluded, also; for, in the language of Governor Holden during the war, "It is time North Carolina, was ruled by North Carolinians."

The Marshall, General Ransom, the Secretary, Major Englehard of the Journal, and other officers of the association, have been noticed heretofore, it remains for us to speak of Gen. Colston, Judge Howard and Col. Fremont.

General Colston's fine corps of cadets presented a handsome appearance; their drill, discipline, soldier-like action and bearing, won the admiration of all. The President, Faculty and Trustees, of the University should all have been there to see how easy it is for a man of merit, though a strangrr, to establish a school in North Carolina.

Judge Howard's speech was in excellent taste, well conceived, eloquently and forcibly expressed; it would not have offended carpet-baggers had they been there to hear it. He counseled moderation, and reconciliation, but said there should be no heart and hand for the man who, enjoying our hospitality, cries "treason" at our house doors.

Those who did much for the success of the Fair seemed anxious to give all the credit to the President, Col. Fremont, who works with great energy and success at everything he undertakes; whether it be to run a Railroad or an Agricultural Fair.

We commend to the Raleigh and Gaston and the North Carolina Roads, the policy pursued by the Wilmington and Weldon Road, in connection with the Fair. We heard the success of the Fair attributed, by many, to the liberal policy of the Road.—However, that may be, we see great good to come of Fairs. Let Morganton and Charlotte have theirs next year, something must be done for the agricultural improvement of the State, and the better cultivation of the soil; everything depends upon it.

We call the special attention of our readers to the action which was taken, on the question of holding over, in the Senate on Friday last.

The substitute of Senator Wilson of Forsythe, declaring that the Term of this Legislature expires in August 1870, was voted down, Yeas 18, Nays 20. The Senate thus showed its hand. The House will no doubt follow the lead of the Senate in this matter.

A resolution was carried in the Senate, and will be in the House, asking the opinion of the Supreme Court on the question. It is a current rumor that the opinion of the majority of the Justices has been, somehow, ascertained to be favorable to the idea of holding over, and that they will not refuse to give an opinion to that effect. This is believed to be the reason why the Legislature is referring the matter to the Court.

It is understood that Governor Holden and other prominent Radical officials favor holding over. The Governor wants to be elected to the Senate of the United States by this Legislature next Fall. That is the time when an election for such Senator will take place; and the Governor knows that a new Legislature elected next August would be anti-Radical and anti-Holden.

We beg the people to mark the men and the party who are about to commit this outrage.

These conspirators are afraid for the people to see what they are doing in this matter. Their organ, the Standard, gave a miserably garbled and incorrect report of the Senate's action upon it. It avoided noticing the defeat of Mr. Wilson's substitute, and ingeniously mixed up votes and figures so as to convey the impression that the Senate carried that substitute. The Standard's plain purpose was to suppress the truth from its readers.

We will publish to-morrow the remarks of Senator Robbins on the subject of the Legislature holding over.

The Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Nov. 22, 1869.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Winstead, Senator from Person, in the Chair.

PETITION.

A. H. Galloway, colored, presented a petition from the citizens of Wilmington, irrespective of parties, urging the repeal of an act establishing a special Court in the city of Wilmington, and moved its reference to the Committee on the Judiciary, as said Committee had the bill relating to that subject. He had been informed by one of the Committee that the Judge of said Court (Cantwell) had notified them that he desired to go before the Committee in order to make an explanation, he (Galloway,) desired the petition to go with the explanation, as said Judge was very obnoxious to the citizens of Wilmington. The reference was made.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Beeman: A Bill to compel persons to work the Public Roads. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

By Mr. Shoffner: A bill relating to the duties of the Judges of the Superior Court. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

CALENDAR.

Resolution of Mr. Robbins reducing per diem of members to $4, and mileage to 10 cents, came up.

Mr. Cook moved to strike out $4 and insert $1,50.

Mr. Bellamy moved to strike out and insert 50 cents. The Chair ruled the motion out of order.

Mr. Brogden said he thought it was a matter that should not be treated lightly. He was not an extremist in anything, he was in favor of a fair compensation for services rendered. The old price was $3 per day, but it must be recollected that board was much cheaper at that time than now, good board could be obtained in this city then at 75 cents per day, besides our currency at that time was equivalent to specie, he did not think $4 was equivalent to $3 before the war, and he was opposed to receiving less than was allowed in former times, he did not believe the people desired or would expect it of their Representatives. If gentlemen would treat the subject as it deserved, in a dignified manner, he would vote for a proper consideration, the people would understand that these propositions for $1,50 and 50 cents were offered in jest and ridicule, he was opposed to such picayune notions, and opposed to the original proposition.

Mr. Cook, said he offered the amendment in good faith, he knew the object of the Senator from Rowan was to make capital for the Democratic party, and he thought that his party should be allowed the same privilige.

Mr. Robbins, said he supposed when the amendments of $1 50, and 50 cents were made, it was done with the spirit and intention as suggested by the remarks of the Senator from Johnston. He introduced the resolution in good faith, and was willing and ready to stand by it, the reflection that he had introduced it to make capital was all gammon, he was the representative of thousands, and did not stand on the floor of the Senate simply to represent his own views, or wishes, but those of his constituents, and no Senator had the right to do otherwise, he felt it to be his duty to express the views of his people in introducing the resolution, and those were the figures which he understood suited them. He did not agree with the Senator from Wayne, who thought $4 too little. He (Mr R) was as poor as any Senator on the floor, $4 would meet all necessary expenses incurred while here in the discharge of his duties as Senator, and when asking his fellow citizens for their suffrages to represent them in the Senate, he did not expect to make money by it, and only desired a fair compensation.

A. H. Galloway, (col) moved to lay the whole matter on the table, which was lost.

AYES.—Messrs. Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Etheridge, Eppes, (col) Galloway, (col) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, (col) Jones, of Columbus, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Martindale, Moore, of Yancy, Respass, Smith, and Stephens—17.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beall, Beeman, Brogden, Graham, Jones, of Mecklenburg, Lindsay, Long, Love, Mason, Martindale, Melchor, Murphy, Richardson, Robbins, Shoffner and Wilson.—18.

Bill authorizing the State Treasurer to pay the officers and members of the General Assembly per diem and mileage came up.

A. H. Galloway, colored, offered a substitute to legalize the payments already made, and to fix the per diem and mileage at the same rates as has been allowed at the two preceeding sessions of the General Assembly ($7.)

AYES.—Messrs. Bellamy, Burns, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eppes, colored, Forkner, Galloway, colored, Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, colored, Jones, of Columbus, Jones, of Wake, Martindale, Moore, of Yancey, Smith, Stephens, Sweet and White. —20.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barnes, Beall, Besely, Beeman, Brogden, Etheridge, Graham, Jones, of Meck'enburg, Lassiter, Lindsay, Long, Love, Mason, Melchor, Murphy, Richardson, Respass, Robbins, Shoffner and Wilson.—20

NOTE.—This vote was read from the Clerks desk ayes 21, nays 20, and the substitute was announced as adopted, before leaving the Hall we requested the Clerk to compare our list with his which he did in counting over we make the vote 20 to 20.

The following bill introduced by Mr. Graham several days ago, came up, to wit:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED "AN ACT TO SECURE THE RETURN TO THE PUBLIC TREASURER, THE BONDS ISSUED TO THE CHATHAM RAILROAD COMPANY, WHICH HAVE BEEN DECLARED ILLEGAL BY THE SUPREME COURT."

Sec. 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That the Public Treasurer is hereby authorized, upon the return of any bonds issued by the State to the Catham Railroad Company, under the Act passed at the special session of 1868, and of the Act to re enact and confirm the said Act, passed at the session of 1868 69, to deliver to the person surrendering said bonds, the same amount in bonds of the Chatham Railroad Company, received by the State in exchange for the above mentioned bonds.

Sec. 2. That the Public Treasurer is authorized and directed to assign the mortgage made by the said Catham Railroad Company, to secure the payment of the bonds so received in exchange for bonds issued under the above recited acts, to a Trustee for the benefit of all parties who may desire to avail themselves of the benefit of this Act.

Sec. 3. That this Act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Mr. Martindale moved its reference to the Committee on Internal Improvements, after some discussion the reference was made.

A message was received from the House, transmitting a bill to amend Sec. 485, Chapt. 12, title 19, of the Code of Civil Procedure. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary. also, a resolution of enquiry addressed to the Secretary of State in reference to the amount of stationery &c., that has been issued. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Davis the Senate agreed to go into the election of an Engrossing Clerk to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Rich.

Mr. Robbins, nominated Hinton R. Helper, of Salisbury.

Mr. Lassiter nominated Thos. J. Johnson, of Granville.

The Senate proceeded to ballott, and Mr. Johnson was declared duly elected having received 27 votes, Mr. Helper 9.

A message was received from the House transmitting resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Jonathan Worth.

Messrs. Robbins and Brogden delivered appropriate addresses in memory of the deceased.

On motion of A. H. Galloway (col) the Senate adjourned until to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The Resolution of Mr. Seymour, in regard to maintaining the State's credit, pledging the State to pay her public debt, the question being on the amendment of Mr. Malone, to insert "legally incurred and honestly disposed of, as to the bonded debt."

Mr. French asked an explanation of the amendment, said the inference was that part had been illegally and dishonestly disposed of.

Mr. Malone said the object was to avoid pledging the faith of the State to every single act creating indebtedness, because it appears regular. Acts giving men control of $12,000,000, may be regular, yet the bonds may be disposeof to parties who have full notice of thaud. If an agent transcends his authoy the principal is not liable. If a man, sing through the country, offers a horse-rth $200 for $25, it is evidence of some g wrong—that the horse was probably nohe property of the seller. So, if a man proses to sell $6,000,000 of North Carolinads for 35 to 39 cents on the dol, it is almost positive evidence bad faith. Col. Joh a on very propere used to put his bonds on the marketat others have placed millions of bondsn the market, yet strange to say, very ittle of the roads have been built and the contractors complain of ving no money.—Why is this? Shall see this ruinous sacrifice of the State Shall we stand by and allow this huge reulation, and when called upon, vote a rlution endorsing the same? It is monstro to contemplate!—If this be the policy, are ruined! ruined!

Mr. Sinclair oppos the amendment; it would intimate thathe Legislature had made dishonest appropriations and prejudge matterson thisubject to go before Committees.

Mr. Seymour hopd the amendment would be withdrawn d the vote taken on the main question.

Mr. Malone aid thiamendment involved the question wether e people should be protected from the ifamous swindles of the "Ring." Tere wasno party movement in it; it was ment a measure to protect the State, ad all en who wished the State's appropritio to Railroads honestly and judiciously, could support it regardless of party.

Vest and Harris, of Wake, opposed the amendment.

Mr. French though there were grounds of suspicion that bon had been dishonestly disposed of, it is the duty of the House to examine ine matter, and not put this amendmen this resolution, which was intended prop the credit of the State.

Mr. Argo thought proceedings on the matter premature, amoved to postpone for one month, that mittees might have time to report on mars connected with it.

On his motion thes and nays were ordered and resulted, 54, nays 44, as follows;

YEAS.—Messrs. A, Armstrong, Ashworth, Barnes, Blaioddie, Candler, Carson, Clayton, Davi Davidson, Durham, Ellis, Ferebee, Gg, Gilson, Green, Grier, Hawkins, Hricks, Hicks, High, Hinnant, Hodnet Humphries, Jarvis, Kelly, of Davie, Ke of Moore, Long, of Chatham, Long, Richmond, Malone, Matheson, McMill Mendenhall, Moore, of Alamance, Nicln, Painter, Parker, Pou, Ragland, Robin, Seymour, Shaver, Siegrist, Smith, of Alleghany, Smith, of Wayne, Snipes, Sta, Thomoson, Vestal, Welch, Whitley, W, Williams, of Harnett—54.

NAYS.—Messrs. er, Cawthorn, Cherry, Crawford, Eag Ellington, Forkner, Foster, French, Gan; Gilbert, Graham, Gunter, Harris, Franklin, Harris, of Wake, Hayes, Hill, Hodgin, Hoffman, Hudgings, Justus, Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Ki, Laflin Mayo, McCanless, Moring, ll, Morris, Pearson, Peck, Proctor, Row, Robbins, Reynolds, Sinclair, Sm of Martin, Stevens, Sweat, Vest, Wald, White, Williamson, Wilson—44.

Mr. Seymour m to reconsider the vote just taken. hought now was the time for the State declare her ability and willingness to her new bonds. He wished old and neonds put on the same footing, all made ial tax bonds. He spoke at some le, declaring against repudiation, &c.

Mr. Ingram favd the motion to reconsider.

Mr. Argo said opposed, repudiation, except in case of direst necessary; but he was opposed thieving in every shape and form. It wacharged that thieving was going on in Railroad bonds, also, that collusion betn those managing the bonds and the pusers, existed; he desired the postponent to give committees to investigate these charges, time to report. If theorts show no ground for the charges, itl then be time enough for these resoluti; at present this Legislature is acting ie dark on the matter.

Mr. Pou was oped to the motion to reconsider. He ught no one could be hurt by the postpment; at least, no one who had a right be consideration of the Legislature. Theds were neither in the hands of the authies of the Railroads or those of purchas, if the former, let them call at e Treasurer's office draw the interest them and go to work on their roads; ifhe hands of the latter, let them call for interest of six cents on the dollar. That itself is one sixth of the the present worth the bonds, and probably one-sixth of investment made in them by the purser. Let the Legislature in this matte"make haste slowly" and act conscientily and with its best judgment.

Mr. Justice favd the reconsideration. He was opposed repudiation, and said it was the doctrine Democrats hoped to carry the next elen with, and this movement would give m strength.

Mr. Hodnett sa when money matters were discussed interest of the bondholders seemed tosorb the attention of some gentlemen, ile the interest of the poor people wasmpletely ignored. If the cry of repudion was raised, gentlemen should remear that the Republican party was born withe word written upon its forehead. Thew Constitution, which the Republicans fd upon the people, repudiated, in the liseventh article, millions of debt between cn and citizen, while the bloated bondhold pledges of security given. He cat fm the people, was a workingman as kw the value of money earned by the seat the brow.

Gentlemen were istaken in regard to the cause of th depreciation of our bonds. Northern brokes ad bankers were shrewd and far-seeing menthey knew that the people were over tad and could not pay. Go to Greensborond see the caravans which almost daily through that place carrying our citize to other States, driven forth by the enorms load of taxation put upon them by the islation of the Republican party. At the se o the war, the Republican party ca into power professing to be the poor n's friend but in their reckless and lavixpenditures are taking away the little hy the war and driving them from their es by excessive taxation.

He had warn gentlemen last session that these lavish propriations of money would educate people to the doctrine of repudiation. people were fast becoming aware hotheir interest was being abused and if glemen did not pause in their career, orepresentatives would be sent here, whould attend more to the interest of the constituents than to the bond holders all aret.

After some oer discussion the House adjourned unil morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

We are compe greatly to condense our report to fit them in the space at command.—REPORTER.

THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1869.

☞ Theo. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

THE CONVENTION BILL.

The pressure upon our columns did not permit us to give as full a report, as we desired, of the debate upon this measure in the Senate on Saturday.

We should especially have liked to give at large the speech of Senator Robbins, who introduced the bill and who explained its purposes and its necessities at some length, taking the general ground that the time has now come for all thoughtful and moderate men to take steps to inaugurate a simpler and better system of internal government for North Carolina, more in unison with the feelings and customs of her people, while at the same time doing justice to all classes and races of our citizens, and ignoring obsolete and dead issues. When the question comes up on the report of the special Committee, to whom it was referred, we shall probably have a full discussion of it and give it to our readers. The subject is very important.

New Advertisements.—We refer to the new advertisements in to day's issue, and hope everybody will be careful in reading and examining them closely.

We have not been able, owing to the verbose prolixity, or the prolix verbosity of the Legislative reports for several days, to call special attention to new advertisements as we like to do; we'll do better "after a while."

Penitentiary.—Gen. Dockery will deliver an address at Commons Hall on Wednesday evening, the 24th inst., at 7½ o'clock, on matters pertaining to the Penitentiary. The public, generally, are invited to attend.

The Federal Court will meet in this City on Monday the 29th inst.

The Blair House.—This new first class Hotel, situated just North of the Capitol in this City, will probably be opened to the public this week. We have a very extensive experience in hotel life, having at one time or another, shared the accommodations of almost every first class hotel in the South, and we have no hesitation in saying, that in regard to the arrangements and appointments of our new Hotel, the Blair House, for the convenience, accommodation and comfort of guests, there is not a Hotel, from Baltimore to New Orleans, that can excel it; while the experience and will of the proprietor, J. M. Blair, Esq., so long and favorably known to the patrons of the Yarborough House, are sufficient guarantee to the public that the advantages of the new house, under his control, will not be wasted or misapplied.

No Hotel can long maintain its reputation or claim to patronage, that does not have intelligent and experienced supervision of the larder and culinary departments, and in these particular branches, the Blair House will possess superior advantages; for we write it at the risk of giving offense by such a public allusion, that Mrs. B. has no superior in the knowledge of the cuisine, and her unremitting attention and supervision of this department has had no small share in gaining for the Yarborough House the high reputation it has enjoyed, and it will tell with equal effect on the popularity of the new Blair House.

Policy Paid.—Dr. Wm. J. Allen, Agt. for the Georgia Masonic Life Insurance Company, for this State, received and paid over, last week, to Mrs. Annie E. Moore, widow of James A. Moore, $4,217, being the amount due him on insurance in that Company.

The working of the Georgia Masonic Life, is very simple; it consists in each member paying one dollar on the decease of a member of the Company, to the person entitled to receive it. This Company has been in operation about two years, and has paid in policies during that time, over $300,000. The punctual payment of the one dollar on the death of a member is requisite to the condition of membership.

G. A. R.—There will be a meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic for this city, at Temperance Hall this, (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock.

Self Advertised.—PHALON'S VITALIA OR SALVATION for the Hair carries with it its own best advertisement. As the light shines through the bottle you see that the liquid is clear as the azure of heaven. You smell it and find the odor agreeable. You apply it and it changes gray hair to any natural shade without soiling the scalp or producing headache. Nothing can be more harmless.

Never Say Die.—Our energetic fellow-citizen, Jordan Womble, is preparing to rebuild his store on Hargett street, destroyed by fire some two or three weeks ago. He intends, we learn, to go a story higher this time. His old friends and customers will find him "at home" in the course of a few weeks, ready to deal with them in his old straight forward way.

Gone.—Rev. H. T. Hudson, for four years pastor of the M. E. Church in this city, preached his farewell sermon to his congregation on Sunday last, and leaves this morning for Conference at Newbern. During his pastoral charge here he has greatly endeared himself to his Church and congregation, and has won the respect of all denominations by his christian courtesy and charity. He leaves, bearing with him the esteem of all who have had the pleasure of knowing him, and their best wishes for his happiness and success in whatever field of labor he may be sent to.

Cut off His Hand.—On last Monday, two colored men, Rufus McClellan, of this place, and Burt Hall, of Salisbury, got into a dispute about some matter, when Burt Hall, who held in his hand an axe, struck at his adversary, who throwing up his arm to parry the blow, had his hand severed entirely from the arm at the wrist. The offender was taken before a magistrate and sent to jail.—Statesville American.

For the Sentinel.

FOR PUBLIUS OF THE STANDARD OF NOVEMBER 11TH.

The course of conduct of Mr. Justice Settle, in the case of Messrs. Dillard, Scales and Scales, as stated by Publius is briefly as follows:

Mr. Justice Settle was sitting judicially as a magistrate by virtue of his being a Judge of the Supreme Court. He was sitting alone and not as the Supreme Court—but as an examining Magistrate. He was then holding an accidental Court as an examining Magistrate, and he refused to allow regularly licensed members of the Bar to appear before him in the capacity of Attorneys. In other words, he disbarred them from appearing as Attorneys in his accidental and temporary Court.

This is what he did. Now let us see what are the reasons as stated by Publius for this conduct.

Publius says, Messrs. Dillard, Scales and Scales had signed a certain writing which charged that he, Judge Settle, and the other Judges of the Supreme Court, singly and en masse, had so demeaned themselves during the late political struggles as to unfit them to hold the "scales of justice." This, Publius affirms, is a contempt not only of the Supreme Court then established and composed of five Judges, but of all other Courts which might thereafter be held by any one of those Judges sitting alone as an examining Magistrate, and at any distance of time, after such charges, though such Courts were altogether accidental and temporary.

In other words Messrs. Dillard, Scales and Scales had not only been guilty of contempt of Supreme Court, but of all the accidental Courts which could be held by any one of the five Judges as examining Magistrates at any distance of time thereafter.

Being thus guilty of six distinct contempts for which they are punishable by disbarring. One to the Supreme Court en masse—that is the head—and to each of the five others singly, to wit, the arms and legs of that Court.

This was enough, indeed, to alarm the Attorneys but for the kind suggestion, that "doubtless any one of the Justices would regard their answers in that (Supreme) Court, as sufficient to entitle them to appear before a single Justice."

In order to entitle said Attorneys to appear before Justice Settle as an examining Magistrate in his accidental Court, they were informed, "that answers filed before a single Justice and approved by him would entitle the respondents to appear before such Justice and could also be forwarded by him to the Supreme Court for its consideration of the respondent's denial."

This paragraph was, also, doubtless, intended to quiet the supposed fears of the Attorneys against being further harrassed by the other five incurred castigations.

Such is the defense against the charge in the Review of the opinion of the Supreme Court in note to page 33, which charge is as follows." Notwithstanding the rule of the Court distinctly specified the names of the Attorneys disabled, and the disability, in the very words of the rule, was confined exclusively to their practising only in the Supreme Court, we are informed, upon undoubted authority, that Mr. Justice Settle, in the month of August last, refused to allow Attorneys, who had not been thus named and disabled, the privilege of appearing before him while sitting as an examining Magistrate, upon information that they, too, had signed the protest!

Now, no rule had ever been taken against them by any court whatever, nor had any notice been given to them of a rule for that purpose.

The escape provided by Publius for justice Settle is this; The protest charges all the Judges of the Supreme Court with "rushing into the mad contest of politics" and then announces as a great truth "from the unerring lessons of the past we are assured that a Judge who openly and publicly displays his political party zeal renders himself unfit to hold the "balance of justice," and that whenever an occasion may offer to serve his fellow partisans, he will yield to the temptation and the "wavering balance shakes."

Now, says Publius, Justice Settle sits judicially in two characters—in one as a justice of the Supreme Court, and in the other as a single magistrate.

Be it so—the complete answer is, that the protest embraces the persons only who acted as Judges of the Supreme Court.

It was never intended to embrace the ordinary Justices of the peace, or those who sat in their, or similar, courts. Publius does injustice to the signers of the protest to suppose that they were following the Judges to these inferior courts. Here, although they may be partisans, they are likely to be as pure as Justices of the Peace. The signers did not suppose that Justice Settle, acting as a Justice of the Peace, could in the language of the protest, "Settle the great principles of a political constitution."

They were after higher officers than Justice Settle sitting in Rockingham or Caswell.

But grant that Judge Settle sitting as a Justice of the Peace in Caswell or Rockingham could notice a contempt while holding his examining court, could he stretch his judicial power beyond the act. In relation to proceedings in contempt's," passed in April 1869?

This act confines contempts of courts to acts done in view and presence of the courts tending to interrupt their proceedings or official misbehaviour; and punishes with fine or imprisonment or both, and not by disbarring.

Now, in the case of Dillard, Scales and Scales, the Attorneys were not allowed to open their mouths as Attorneys; not because they interrupted the proceedings of court or had officially misbehaved, but because, (to put the very harshest construction on the words of the protest) they had said of Justice Settle many months before that time, that by becoming a partisan in politics he was unfit to sit as a Justice of the Peace in an examining court.

It is clear that if these gentlemen had said the same thing of any Justice of the Peace of the county of Caswell, who had been the examining Magistrate instead of Judge Settle, the Justice of the peace could not have refused to hear the Attorneys. I am almost sure that no Justice of the Peace could be found, throughout the State, so silly as to have shut the mouth of an Attorney for such a cause. The review asserts upon authority, that a Justice of the Peace could not notice as a contempt any words however personally scandalous of him, unless uttered in his presence, and his judicial proceedings were interrupted thereby.

Whence then, I submit to Publius, did Justice Settle, sitting as a Justice of the peace, derive larger authority over contempts in conducting the case than would have been possessed by a justice of the peace.

Even in England, where exists the doctrine of scandalum magnatum, which raises the state of a Judge far over that of a Justice of the Peace, no Judge sitting as an examining magistrate would ever have claimed higher powers over contempts than belong to a justice of the peace.

Publius impliedly admits the fact, that these Attorneys had never been disabled by any proceeding of the Supreme Court, nor by any Court whatever, nor had any proceedings whatever been formally taken against them. I ask him then by what authority did Judge Settle disable them from practising before him? Will he also inform the public, whether they likewise are disabled from practising before the Justices of the Peace of Caswell and Rockingham, when Justice Settle is not one of the examining magistrates?

The naked case is this;—three Attorneys regularly licensed to practise law, presents themselves, on behalf of three clients, before Justice Settle sitting as examining magistrate. He assumed, without proof, that they had signed a certain paper, and disbarred them at once, without any rule to show cause to the contrary, by questioning his jurisdiction or otherwise, though the right to appear before him was a property of which they could not be legally deprived, unless after full and formal trial. The matter it seems did not admit of delay. The ship's crew was in meeting.

The review assumes, that Justice Settle disbaned the Attorneys without a rule. Do the proceedings cited by Publius show otherwise? certainly not.

I have said that, if the same words which were used by the Atttorneys towards the Judges of the Supreme Court, had been written of a Justice of the Peace, he could not have noticed them, as constituting a contempt. But the record of Judge Settle's proceedings show that he ruled otherwise. That record, referring to the protest, puts Justices of the Peace on the same footing with Judges, and declares, that if Attorneys "shall so act as to bring the authority of any Court or Magistrate into contempt, such Court or Magistrate should not permit them to appear and exercise the privileges of Attorneys." Yes, any Court or any Magistrate, then or afterwards!

This annunciation of the powers of Justices of the Peace over constructive contempts far transcends any powers ever heretofore claimed either in England or North Carolina. It asserts the rights of Justices of the Peace to disbar Attorneys!! and even for contempts; although it is clearly settled, by the highest authority in England, that an Attorney cannot be disbarred unless he shall have lost his moral status.

As a freeman I feel it my duty to denounce such innovations upon our institutions.

The law in respect to contempts, before Justices of the Peace sitting out of Court, was the common law up to April 1869, and who ever heard of a Justice of the Peace disbarring an Attorney, either in England or America?

The common law allowed attachments for such contempts, committed in their presence, as disturbed their proceedings. It was not a contempt of the Justice to say of him, when not engaged in official duty, that be was corrupt in the administration of justice.

By the law of April 1869, Sec. 4, "Every Justice of the Peace, Judge of Probate, Referee, Commissioner, Clerk of the Superior Court, or Judge of the Superior Court, or Justice of the Supreme Court shall have power to punish for contempt while sitting for the trial of cases or engaged in official duties."

Here, then, it is explicitly declared, that Justices of the Supreme Court and Justices of the Peace have the same powers in noticing and punishing contempts committed while they are "engaged in official duties." And while it is manifest that the legislation has not increased the powers of Judges over the subject of contempts, Publius represents Mr. Justice Settle as using language in the proceedings before him as published, which announces the doctrine, that if a Justice of the Peace should be abused any where and at any time by an Attorney, the Justice possesses the power, and it is his duty to exercise it "not to permit the Attorney to appear before him and exercise the privileges of an Attorney." Alas for our liberties if this interpretation of law be the shadow of coming events.

ANTI-PUBLIUS.

A Splendid Prize for the Ladies!—The finest, most pleasing, and costly engraving ever published in America, to be presented as a premium to each subscriber to Demorest's Monthly, a Magazine of practical utility in the household, a mirror of the fashions, and a literary conservator of surpassing interest and artistic excellence, acknowledged to be the Model Parlor Magazine of America.

The engraving 28 by 35 inches, is from the original painting, entitled, "The Pic Nic on the 4th of July"

The painting took a whole year, and is considered the finest of the entire list of numerous popular productions by Lilie M. Spencer. The engraving was the labor of four years, by three eminent artists—John Rogers, John Halpin, and Samuel Hollyer; the last named having been induced to come from Europe to America expressly to finish it. The engravers have ably seconded the successful labors of the painter.—None but artists can fully appreciate the skill and labor lavished on this engraving. The general effect is very fine and impressive, and the delicate finish to the heads will bear the most minute inspection. The union of line and stipple is executed with unusual ability, and their skillful combination has greatly contributed to the success of the engravers in this unsurpassed proof of their artistical genius.

The work on the engraving alone cost over seven thousand dollars, besides the cost of the copyright, and is acknowledged by competent judges the most elaborately finished large work of art ever engraved in America.

Fine copies of this magnificent Picture, on heavy plate paper, worth $10 each are to be given as a Premium to each Subscriber to Demorest's Monthly Magazine, Yearly Subscriptions only Three Dollars, and Ten Cents (which is to be sent with the subscription), for the postage on the engraving, (which will be mailed securely done up on a roller.

This is certainly the largest, most liberal and splendid premium ever offered to single subscribers by any publisher, and affords an easy and economical way for any one to secure an elegant work of art, a Parlor Picture that is only next to a piano in the way of ornamentation, and a perpetual reminder of a day which ought to be cherished and held in remembrance by every true American.

The reception of this magnificent picture will take every one by surprise, and we do not venture anything in saying that $10 will not procure another that combines so much of interest and beauty.

Specimens of the Magazine, with circulars, giving full particulars, will be sent to any given address, post free, on receipt of 15 cents. Address Demorest's Monthly, 838 Broadway, N. Y.

UNANIMOUSLY

Adopted by the State Board of Louisiana, July 17, 1869

☞ By reference to the accompanying lists of Text Books used in the Schools of North Carolina in 1855 and those adopted this year, it will be seen that, in nearly every important particular,

THE OLD NORTH CAROLINA STANDARD IS RETAINED.

The Present Standard	The Original Standard
Adopted by the Board of Education.	Recommended by the State Superintendent,
Parker and Watson's Spellers	Webster's Ele'y. Spelling Book.

Davies Primary Arithmetic.	Davies' Primary Arithmetic.
Davies' Intellectual Arithmetic.	Davies' Intellectual Arithmetic.
Davies' Written and Practical Arith's.	Davies' School Arithmetic.
Monteith's Series of Geographies.	Monteith's Manual of Geography.
McNally's School Geography,	McNally's School Geography.
Monteith's History United States.	Bullion's English Grammar.

From Rev. C. H. WILEY formerly State Supt. of Education,

BRISTOL, TENN., Oct. 14, 1869.

I had seen by the papers what had been done by the Board of Education in North Carolina and was glad. I had ample reasons for my former recommendations in the use of the books in our schools.

These Books are Used by the Best Schools in the State.

Late Testimonials in Brief.

It affords me great pleasure to bestow on them my heartiest commendation. They are vastly superior to any other books of the kind I have yet seen.—W. H. WEATHERLY, Prin Clas. and Math. School, Elizabeth City, Oct. 25, 1869.

Send me ten Davies' Intellectual Arithmetics for introduction. They are superior to any I have seen.—W. F. ENGLISH, Mount Olive, Oct. 20, 1869.

I intend using the same books in my school as those used in the Common Schools. * * I am already using Monteith's Geographies.—JOHN D. JOHNSON, Yadkinville, Sept. 26, 1869.

I am and have ever been an earnest advocate of uniformity in school books. The Board recommendations—Arithmetics and Geographies—are the best that could have been made.—H. H. SMITH. Lincolnton, Sept. 28th, 1869.

Because these books are adopted by the State Board, as well as for the merits of the books themselves, we wish to introduce them, and use them exclusively in our school.—Rev. S. C. ALEXANDER, Charlotte, Oct. 11, 1869.

Steele's "Nat. Philosophy" received. Am struck with its superiority to the other in many respects. As a class is waiting, substitute in my order Steele's Philosophy for first introduction. —G. W. JEWETT, Wilmington, Oct. 13, 1869.

Davies' Mathematics was adopted by me in 1855, and up to this time I have examined no work superior to them. I have examined McNally's Geography and Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy. I consider them most excellent works and shall put them into my boys' hands at the earliest period.—J. E. DUGGER, Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton.

It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's (No. 4) into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works (Monteith and McNally) seem to me to be admirable.—Rev. ALDERT SMEDES, D.D., Rector of St. Mary's, Raleigh.

The system of Geography—Monteith and McNally—I am well pleased with.—Rev. WM. S. LACY, Raleigh.

Davies' Arithmetics, Monteith's Geographies and the National Readers are too well known to require a word from me. Monteith and Davies are the best that I am acquainted with.—Prof. FRANK VAUGHAN, Elizabeth City, Oct. 11, 1869.

I have waited patiently for the adoption by the Board of Education of this state of the books to be used in the public schools, and am much pleased to find that so many have been selected from the National Series.—Rev. W. L. MILLER, Charlotte, Oct. 1, 1869.

Am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the readers; and as to the Series of Geographies, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.—Dr. WM. B. HARRELL, Prin. High School, Snow Hill.

The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology, and in a form so simple and intelligible makes it, (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.—Col. WM BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School.

I design introducing McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic.—Dr. CRAIG, Prin. Durham Academy.

Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. An admirable work.—M. L. LITTLE, Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton.

Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.—STINSON IVEY, Prin. Auburn Academy.

The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.—Prof. WM. A. OBENCHAIN, late Hillsboro' Military Academy.

I have introduced your National Series of Readers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose. With Davies' Mathematical series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them. In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies.—Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Prin. Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant.

The National Series of Readers and Spellers are the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school. I use Davies. I consider his works incomparably superior in many respects. Monteith's Series afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression.—Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Stantonsburg Scientific High School.

I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz., of Geology and Physical Geography.—Prof W. C. KERR, State Geologist of North Carolina.

Mr. Taylor Johnson Olive's Chapel, has introduced the National Readers, Monteith's Geographies, Davies Arithmetics, Clark's Grammars, etc.; Mr. John Franks, Grove P. O., has introduced the National Series throughout; Mr. W. A. Branch, New Hill P. O., uses the National Series throughout; Mr. Adolphus Rogers, Green Level P. O., uses the National Reader, Copy-Books, Monteith's Geographies, and York's Grammar; Mrs. Emma Bangham, Cary P. O., uses the National Series; Mr. H. C. Olive, New Hill P. O., introduced Monteith's Geographies. There are now at least 250 pupils in Wake and Chatham counties who are daily using the National series of books, within my knowledge.—Prof. W. H. MERRETT, Chatham county, Sept. 14, 1869.

I am glad to learn that some of your books are to be introduced into our State Schools.—Prof. J. M. M. CALDWELL, Greensboro' High School, Oct. 23, 1869.

Distinguished Editors and Critics Praise Them.

The Series must prove acceptable. The structure of language is beautifully exhibited.—Fayetteville Presbyterian.

This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them which are among the best in the state.—Statesville American, 1866.

Have a reputation for merit unsurpassed.—Statesville American, 1869.

Peculiarly adapted to supply the wants we have long felt.—Greensboro' Patriot.

Have acknowledged superiority by the most competent judges.—Western Sentinel.

Davies is excellent in the first degree.—Wadesboro Argus.

Are excelled by none of the many used, and they are superior to most of them.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

When we examine the bright pages of the National Series, and think how we groped along the dry and uninteresting "task" of our boyhood, we are constrained to be envious of the happy pupils of the present.—Wilmington Post.

The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.—Wilmington Herald.

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes: and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this

THE [illegible] are now being manufactured at the SASH AND BLIND FACTORY OF THOS. H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to its merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

ALL THE SURPLUS OF THE COMPANY DIVIDED AMONG THE ASSURED.

DIVIDENDS DECLARED AND PAID ANNUALLY ON THE CONTRIBUTION PLAN.

ALL POLICIES (AFTER TWO FULL PAYMENTS) NON-FORFEITABLE, AND SO EXPRESSED ON EACH POLICY.

No Restrictions as to Residence and Travel in the United States,

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

IT ISSUES ALL THE VARIOUS FORMS OF LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO., AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It issued more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 580 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13 337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."
